Facilitator(s): Rosie Connor

Rosie Connor has led over 100 leadership development and coaching programmes for education leaders across six continents. She consulted for the UK's National College for School Leadership, managed the launch of the AITSL Principal Standard across Australia, and collaborates with the World Innovation Summit for Education.

Objectives:

Contents: School leadership is messy and school leaders are needing to be more adaptive, collaborative and decisive than ever before. Yet the answer can't be to work harder!
Drawing on coaching data from over 6,000 school leaders worldwide, Rosie will share insights on how school leadership is changing, share the top nine challenges currently being named by school leaders, and offer some practical strategies to support you to thrive as a 'MESSY leader'.

Her book Embracing MESSY leadership has been read by 15,000 school leaders since its release in 2024.

BTS Spark is a global not-for-profit initiative providing schools with access to world-class coaching and leadership development.
